

NORMAN MOORE MINISTRIES

Evangelist Norman Moore became a Christian and was called to preach as a boy of eleven in Pueblo, Colorado. He received his ministerial training at Pasadena College, now Point Loma Nazarene University in San Diego, and the California Graduate School of Theology in Glendale, California.

He served three years as youth pastor and seven years as senior pastor in southern California.

Norman was ordained in 1973.

In 1979 he organized Norman Moore Ministries, Inc., a non-profit evangelistic association. He is a Tenured Evangelist in the Church of the Nazarene. His ministry is provided in local church revivals, multiple-church area-wide crusades, camp meetings, universities, retreats, missions, and through radio and television.

His objectives in ministry are to win the lost to Jesus Christ, assist the Christian in sanctified discipleship, lead the Church in genuine revival and encourage the pastor and spouse in their ministries.

Norman resides with his wife, Vickie, in southern California. They have a married daughter, Nickie.
