“The tide of the Spirit was lifting, refreshing and renewing” in New York

During October 4-7 Norman and Vickie participated in revival services in Fulton, New York, near Syracuse. The pastor reports:

“It was with anticipation and preparation we had scheduled Norman Moore for revival this October. Rev. Moore’s clear discernment of the Word, his ability to make the story come to relevant life, caught the hearts of our people. Attendance was excellent.”

“At the core of these meetings were good, solid people seeking God and delighting in His fresh touch. The tide of the Spirit was lifting, refreshing, renewing relationships, ministry and joy. It shows in the worship and response to the Word, in the weeks following our time with the Moores.”

Church of the Nazarene, Fulton, New York*

“Intense time of spiritual renewal” in Tennessee

“In October of 2009 Clarksville Grace had a sweet and intense time of spiritual renewal during our revival services with Rev. Norman Moore. God-sized things happened at the powerful intersection where a clearly proclaimed Word met the hungry hearts of people, intent on growing in their relationship with God.”

“In each service a respectful and cordial invitation was given; and in every service there were responses at the altar. Every age group in the church was responsive to the voice of the Spirit, heard through Rev. Moore’s engaging sermons.”

“Forgiveness, healing and holiness were the fruit of this time set aside to seek God, which was well worth the time, effort and expense of holding a revival.

“Danny, a single man who lost his son in an accident last year, recommitted his life to Christ. Larry experienced a deeper understanding of God’s grace. Lou got serious about overcoming an addiction. Michelle found a place of rest and peace that had been swallowed up in the frantic pace of her life. Some experienced healing from past hurts that had left them broken, and others made a full surrender to Jesus.”

“We are much better off. I am grateful to God for the ways He worked in the lives of the people at Grace!”

*Dr. Steve Estep, Pastor
Grace Church of the Nazarene
Clarksville, Tennessee*
