MidAmerica Nazarene University Students: “blessed to hear”

“I teach the Introduction to Ministry class at Mid-America Nazarene University. We were privileged to have Drs. Norman Moore and Gary Bond as guest lecturers. Both of these men shared their respective calls into the ministry and told about “life on the road” and the rewards and challenges of a life committed to the field of evangelism.”

“The members of our class were blessed to hear these stories and engaged in thoughtful reflection and conversation during the question and answer time at the end of class.”

Positive Response at Eastern Nazarene College

“On October 6th Eastern Nazarene College was privileged to welcome Dr. Norman Moore to campus. In addition to meeting with our President, Dr. Jack Connell and attending Chapel, we had the chance to have Dr. Moore speak to one of our classes, Ecclesiology: Mission and Evangelism. It was wonderful to hear from him and his wife, Vickie in this setting and our students responded well to their heart and passion for the work of evangelism.”

“Along with Dr. Moore’s presentation there was a good time of questions and discussion. I believe that it was so helpful to have these students hear about the possibilities of itinerant evangelism and to reflect on how this form of evangelism serves the church and can adjust with the times. Thanks, Dr. Moore for joining us for this important conversation.”

“We thank the Lord for His presence in our October Revival meetings led by Dr. Norman Moore. His messages were timely and Biblical. There were responses to each message at the altars.”

“Our church began a new work to Spanish speaking neighbors with the help of a District Leader. Norman arranged to have four cases of Spanish Bibles donated and shipped to our church for use by Pastor Edgar Monterosa in the Spanish speaking ministries on the North Arkansas District Church of the Nazarene.”

“I thank Norman Moore for his clear Biblical preaching, prayerful invitation to our congregation and the gift of his fellowship to me.”
