Corona Church Gives Revival Emphasis

"For the first time in twenty-five years the church conducted a revival with an exceptional evangelist, Dr. Norman Moore. Ironically the church board lost interest in revival, choosing to promote "attractional services" and great music. Not to disparage an attractive orientation, (worship bands, etc.), but intentional opportunities for serious spiritual awakening and growth should not be sacrificed enrichment."

"This week's services were compelling, engaging and convicting. The Holy Spirit worked through his servant, Dr. Moore. It was a new experience for most everyone and was positively received. It was even more meaningful when we are considered a Restart."

"The attendance was higher than the annual average for the year before. The response to the messages led to a well-used altar. The evangelist's delivery style, word smithing, clarity relatability and impact were excellent. Yes, I continually surveyed. Most, if not all, of the attendees expressed strong support for scheduling a future revival. We recommend Dr. Moore to you."
